Re: Notice of Dismissal, SC-32004114

Dear Ms. Tucker:

You filed sworn complaint SC-32004114 with the Texas Ethics Commission (Commission) on April 13, 2020. The complaint did not meet the legal and technical form requirements for a complaint filed with the Commission. By a letter dated April 17, 2020, you were notified that the complaint would be dismissed under Section 571.123, Government Code, if not re-filed by May 8, 2020. The original complaint, a copy of the rules for filing a sworn complaint, and a statement explaining how the complaint failed to comply were included with the notice of non-compliance.

Section 571.123(c), Government Code, provides as follows:

If the commission determines that the complaint does not comply with the form requirements, the commission shall send the complaint to the complainant with the written notice, a statement explaining how the complaint fails to comply, and a copy of the rules for filing sworn complaints. The commission shall send a copy of the rejected complaint to the respondent with the written notice and the statement explaining how the complaint fails to comply. The complainant may resubmit the complaint not later than the 21st day after the date the notice under Subsection (b) is mailed. If the commission determines that the complaint is not resubmitted within the 21-day period, the commission shall: (1) dismiss the complaint; and (2) not later than the fifth business day after the date of the dismissal, send written notice to the complainant and the respondent of the dismissal and the grounds for dismissal.

Sworn complaint SC-32004114 is dismissed for failure to resubmit within the 21-day period. No other action will be taken with respect to this complaint.
