On this day, set forth above, this cause came for trial and came the State of Texas, by its above-named attorney, and the Defendant appeared in person and by the above-named attorney for the Defendant, or, where a Defendant is not represented by counsel, that the Defendant knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily waived the right to representation by counsel; and announced ready for trial, the Defendant having been heretofore arraigned, or having waived arraignment in open court, and having agreed that the testimony may be stipulated in this cause and the Defendant, his counsel, and the State's attorney having agreed in writing in open court to waive a jury in the trial of this cause and to submit this cause to the Court, and the Court having agreed to the same, the said attorney for the State read the instrument charging the offense as shown or the reading of the charging instrument having been waived by Defendant, the Defendant entered his pleas as shown above thereto, and it appearing to the Court that the Defendant is mentally competent and the plea is free and voluntary, and the Court having duly admonished the Defendant as to the consequences of such plea, including the range of punishment attached to the offense and the fact that any recommendation of the prosecuting attorney as to punishment is not binding on the Court, and the Defendant further having affirmatively stated awareness of the consequences of such plea and acknowledged to not having been misled or harmed by the admonishment of the Court, yet the Defendant persisted in entering such plea, said plea is by the Court received and now entered of record upon the minutes of the Court as the plea herein of said Defendant. The Court after receiving the plea shown and hearing the evidence, finds that it substantiates the Defendant's guilt and that further proceedings should be deferred without entering an adjudication of guilt and that Defendant should be placed on probation on reasonable terms and conditions as the Court may require.

The State of Texas do have and recover of the said Defendant all costs in this prosecution expended including any fine shown above for which let execution issue. And it is further ORDERED by the Court that the imposition of sentence of the judgment of conviction herein shall be suspended during the good behavior of the Defendant and that the Defendant be placed on probation during the period of time, fixed by the Court, under the conditions to be determined by the Court, as provided by law. However, when it is shown above that a fine applicable to the offense committed has been imposed by the Court and not suspended, then it is ORDERED that Defendant pay such fine and all costs in this prosecution expended and that Defendant be placed on probation during the period of time fixed by the Court, under the conditions to be determined by the Court, as provided by law.

IT IS THEREFORE CONSIDERED by the Court that the evidence substantiates the Defendant's guilt and that further proceedings should be Deferred without entering an adjudication of guilt, and that Defendant be placed on probation during the period of time prescribed by the Court on such reasonable terms and conditions as the Court may require in accordance with law.

ORDER SETTING CONDITIONS OF COMMUNITY SUPERVISION

On this day, above shown, in open court, the Defendant, the above-named attorney for Defendant, and the attorney for the State, appeared and the Court considered the terms and conditions of probation in accordance with the judgment of conviction heretofore entered herein; and the Court being of the opinion that such terms and conditions should be subject to the supervision of the Court through the duly appointed and acting Director of Community Supervision and Corrections Department of Tarrant County, Texas;

It is therefore ORDERED by the Court that the Defendant be, and is hereby placed on probation for the above named term beginning on the date of entry of judgment herein under the supervision of the Court, through the Director of Community Supervision and Corrections Department of Tarrant County, Texas, subject to the following terms and conditions set out in the attached Conditions of Community Supervision which is incorporated and made a part thereof.
