

New Member Appointed To Athens Board

ATHENS—Dr. Curtis Boyd, Henderson County health officer, has been appointed to the Athens School Board to fill the vacancy of Arthur Hawn Jr., who resigned after moving to Dallas.

The school board has also called a special meeting at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at the school administration office to decide whether to add the "Family Living" series to the school's curriculum.

The board was reorganized following Dr. Boyd's appointment with Robert Fields, president; Dr. Dwight Jones, vice-president; and Bill Erwin, secretary.

Dr. Boyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Boyd of Athens, is a graduate of Athens High School and received his B.S. degree from Texas AM University at College Station. He received his M. D. degree from the University of Texas Southwestern Medical School.
