

CITY OF JASPER, TEXAS

ORDINANCE NO. _____

ORDINANCE OUTLAWING ABORTION, DECLARING JASPER A SANCTUARY CITY FOR THE UNBORN, MAKING VARIOUS PROVISIONS AND FINDINGS, PROVIDING FOR SEVERABILITY, AND ESTABLISHING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF JASPER, TEXAS, THAT:

A. FINDINGS

The City Council finds that:

- (1) Human life begins at conception.
- (2) Abortion is a murderous act of violence that purposefully and knowingly terminates an unborn human life.
- (3) Unborn human beings are entitled to the full and equal protection of the laws that prohibit violence against other human beings.
- (4) The Supreme Court's ruling in Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization, No. 19-1392, correctly overruled the Court's lawless and unconstitutional pronouncements in Roe v. Wade, 410 U.S. 113 (1973), and Planned Parenthood of Southeastern Pennsylvania v. Casey, 505 U.S. 833 (1992), which had invented and perpetuated a supposed constitutional right to abortion that cannot be found anywhere in the language of the Constitution;
- (5) The ruling in Dobbs restores the prerogatives of state and local governments to regulate and prohibit abortion as they see fit;
- (6) To protect the health and welfare of all residents within the city of Jasper, including the unborn, the city council finds it necessary to outlaw abortion within the city of Jasper. See Tex. Local Gov't Code § 54.001(b)(1).

B. DECLARATIONS

- (1) We declare Jasper to be a Sanctuary City for the Unborn.
- (2) We declare that abortion at all times and at all stages of pregnancy is an unlawful act, unless the abortion is performed to save the life of the pregnant woman in a medical emergency.
- (3) We call upon the Texas legislature to swiftly enact legislation that imposes civil and criminal liability on those who engage in abortion trafficking by helping women leave the state to kill their unborn children, including those who pay for abortion travel.

(4) We also call upon the Texas legislature and governor to prohibit state contractors from paying for or reimbursing the costs of elective abortions or any of the travel costs associated with these murderous and violent acts.

(5) We call upon district attorneys throughout the state of Texas to investigate and prosecute all Texas abortion funds and their donors that have aided or abetted abortions in Texas in violation of article 4512.2 of the Revised Civil Statutes, which imposes felony criminal liability on any person who “furnishes the means for procuring an abortion knowing the purpose intended.”

C. AMENDMENTS TO CITY CODE

(a) Any person, other than the city of Jasper, and any officer or employee of the city, has standing to bring and may bring a civil action against any person or entity that:

(1) violates any provision of Sections 1.5-2, 1.5-3, 1.5-4, or 1.5-5; or

(2) intends to violate any provision of Sections 1.5-2, 1.5-3, 1.5-4, or 1.5-5.

PROVIDED, that no lawsuit may be brought under this section against a provider or user of an interactive computer service if such a lawsuit would be preempted by 47 U.S.C. § 230(c).

(b) If a claimant prevails in an action brought under this section, the court shall award:

(1) injunctive relief sufficient to prevent the defendant from violating Sections 1.5-2, 1.5-3, 1.5-4, or 1.5-5;

(2) nominal and compensatory damages if the plaintiff has suffered injury or harm from the defendant's conduct, including but not limited to loss of consortium and emotional distress;

(d) Notwithstanding any other law, a person may bring an action under this section not later than the sixth anniversary of the date the cause of action accrues.

- (2) a defendant's belief that the requirements or provisions of this ordinance are unconstitutional or were unconstitutional;
- (3) a defendant's reliance on any court decision that has been vacated, reversed, or overruled on appeal or by a subsequent court, even if that court decision had not been vacated, reversed, or overruled when the cause of action accrued;
- (4) a defendant's reliance on any state or federal court decision that is not binding on the court in which the action has been brought;
- (5) non-mutual issue preclusion or non-mutual claim preclusion;
- (6) the consent of the plaintiff or the unborn child's mother to the abortion;
- (7) contributory or comparative negligence; and
- (8) assumption of risk.

(f) It is an affirmative defense if a person sued under this section:

- (1) was unaware that it was engaged in conduct described in Sections 1.5-2, 1.5-3, 1.5-4, or 1.5-5; and
- (2) took every reasonable precaution to ensure that it would not violate Sections 1.5-2, 1.5-3, 1.5-4, or 1.5-5.

The defendant has the burden of proving an affirmative defense under this Subsection by a preponderance of the evidence.

(g) This section may not be construed to impose liability on any speech or conduct protected by the First Amendment of the United States Constitution, as made applicable to the states through the United States Supreme Court's interpretation of the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution, or by article 1, section 8 of the Texas Constitution.

(h) Notwithstanding any other law, neither the city of Jasper, nor any officer or employee of the city of Jasper may:

- (3) make any attempt to control or influence a person's decision to bring suit under this section or that person's conduct of the litigation; or
- (4) intervene in any action brought under this section.

This subsection does not prohibit a person or entity described by this subsection from filing an amicus curiae brief in the action, so long as that person or entity does not act in concert or participation with the plaintiff or plaintiffs who sue under this section or violate any provision of Subsection (h)(1)–(4).

(i) Notwithstanding any other law, a court may not award costs or attorneys' fees to a litigant who is sued under this section.

(j) Notwithstanding any other law, a civil action under this section may not be brought:

- (2) against any person or entity that performs, aids or abets, or attempts or intends to perform or aid or abet an abortion at the behest of federal agencies, contractors, or employees that are carrying out duties under federal law, if a prohibition on that abortion would violate the doctrines of preemption or intergovernmental immunity;

- (3) against any common carrier that transports a pregnant woman to an abortion provider, if the common carrier is unaware that the woman intends to abort her unborn child; or

- (4) by any person who impregnated a woman seeking an abortion through an act of rape, sexual assault, or incest, or by anyone who acts in concert or participation with such a person.

(k) Notwithstanding any other law, a civil action under this section may be brought only in the district courts of the state of Texas and may not be considered by any municipal or county court.

(b) Any person who becomes aware that information or material described in subsection (a) is accessible through internet service provided by an entity that provides internet service in the city of Jasper may notify that internet service provider and request that it block access to that information or material. A person may provide this notification by:

(1) Calling the internet service provider's customer support number and providing a precise description and location of the information or material described in subsection (a); or

(2) Mailing a letter to the internet service provider and providing a precise description and location of the information or material described in subsection (a).

(c) No direct or indirect enforcement of this section may be taken or threatened by the city of Jasper, or by any officer or employee of this city, by any means whatsoever. The city of Jasper and its officers and employees may, however, ask or encourage internet service providers to comply with the provisions of this section.

Sec. 1.5-8. INTERNET SERVICE IN PUBLIC LIBRARIES AND CITY-OWNED BUILDINGS

(a) Every public library in Jasper and every government-owned building in Jasper that provides internet service shall operate a technology protection measure with respect to each of its computers with Internet access that protects against access through such computers to any of the following:

- (1) Child pornography as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256(8);
- (2) Obscenity that falls outside the protections of First Amendment as interpreted by the Supreme Court of the United States; and
- (3) Information or material that that is intended to assist or facilitate efforts to obtain elective abortions or abortion-inducing drugs, including but limited to the following websites:

(c) Any person who becomes aware that information or material described in subsection (a) is accessible through internet service provided by a public library or government-owned building in Jasper may notify an administrator, supervisor, or other authority and request that it block access to that information or material.

Sec. 1.5-9. SEVERABILITY

(a) Mindful of Leavitt v. Jane L., 518 U.S. 137 (1996), in which in the context of determining the severability of a state statute regulating abortion the Supreme Court of the United States held that an explicit statement of legislative intent is controlling, it is the intent of the city that every provision, section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, or word in this chapter, and every application of the provisions in this chapter to every person, group of persons, or circumstances, are severable from each other.

(b) If any application of any provision in this chapter to any person, group of persons, or circumstances is found by a court to be invalid, preempted, or unconstitutional, for any reason whatsoever, then the remaining applications of that provision to all other persons and circumstances shall be severed and preserved, and shall remain in effect. All constitutionally valid applications of the provisions in this chapter shall be severed from any applications that a court finds to be invalid, preempted, unconstitutional, because it is the city's intent and priority that every single valid application of every provision in this chapter be allowed to stand alone.

(c) The city further declares that it would have enacted this chapter, and each provision, section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, or word, and all constitutional applications of the provisions of this chapter, irrespective of the fact that any provision, section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, or word, or applications of this chapter were to be declared invalid, preempted, or unconstitutional.

(d) If any provision of this chapter is found by any court to be unconstitutionally vague, then the applications of that provision that do not present constitutional vagueness problems shall be severed and remain in force, consistent with the severability requirements of Subsections (a), (b), and (c).

(e) No court may decline to enforce the severability requirements of Subsections (a), (b), (c), and (d) on the ground that severance would "rewrite" the ordinance or involve the court in legislative or lawmaking activity. A court that declines to enforce or enjoins a state or city official from enforcing a statute or ordinance is never rewriting a statute or engaging in legislative or lawmaking activity, as the statute or ordinance continues to contain the same words as before the court's decision. A judicial injunction or declaration of unconstitutionality:

(1) is nothing more than an edict prohibiting enforcement that may subsequently be vacated by a later court if that court has a different understanding of the law;

(2) is not a formal amendment of the language in a statute or ordinance; and

(3) no more rewrites a statute or ordinance than a decision by the executive not to enforce a duly enacted statute or ordinance in a limited and defined set of circumstances.

(f) If any state or federal court disregards any of the severability requirements in Subsections (a), (b), (c), (d), or (e), and declares or finds any provision of this chapter facially invalid, preempted, or unconstitutional, when there are discrete applications of that provision can be enforced against a person, group of persons, or circumstances without violating federal or state law, then that provision shall be interpreted, as a matter of city law, as if the city had enacted a provision limited to the persons, group of persons, or circumstances for which the provision's application will not violate federal or state law, and every court shall adopt this saving construction of that provision until the court ruling that pronounced the provision facially invalid, preempted, or unconstitutional is vacated or overruled.

D. EFFECTIVE DATE

This ordinance shall go into immediate effect upon majority vote within the city of Jasper city council meeting.
